Building, Expanding the Portal to Magnify Benefits

Spirit: Matthew
Medium: Al Fike
Date: October 15, 2022
Location: Dallas, Oregon USA

I am Matthew. I thank you, son, (visitor Matt) for coming to be with us in prayer for you have been called and you have answered the call, beloved son. You shall find that we will be closer, ever closer to you as you seek God and seek the blessing of His Love.

There is purpose in this gathering today; there is an effort being made to establish the conditions, portals, and those things that accompany your prayers to make this a Center of Light, a beautiful beacon of light in the world.

Dear daughter, you have prayed for this and it is indeed manifesting. We have drawn these dear souls together to help anchor and intensify the light in the portal that is here. Many are coming to benefit from the blessings that have been established and are being established in this place. So we begin the work that is intended, part of God's plan, part of God's Will. And so you will feel the blessings as we, many of us from the Celestial Kingdom enter therein, this place, humble yet beautiful, that has the gift of drawing the healing energies from the earth. As you pray, you draw the great blessings from heaven and thus in this meeting place, great benefits of healing and love, comfort, will help to uplift many and show many towards the great awakening of the soul through receiving God's Love.

We thank you for coming and we pray with you. The conditions will build as you pray and so we urge you to pray as often as you can together. Though your numbers are small, the power of your prayers are great. So God will utilize your instrumentalities, your very being to help set into motion what is intended and what God wishes to bring to this place on earth where the energies meet and the blessings come readily.

May God bless you, beloved souls, may God bless you deeply, fully, powerfully in His Love. I am Matthew and I come to pray with you, beloved souls of the earthly plane.

Uphold One Another

Spirit: Mylora
Medium: Al Fike
Date: October 15, 2022
Location: Dallas, Oregon USA

Keep one another in your thoughts, beloveds, for it is in this sense of unity, that camaraderie, that you will find great strength together, that you will come to know each other in a deeper way, will find peace, will find that which you seek to uphold you.

Beloveds, truly be God's children and as such may you hold hands as you walk upon this earth and trust in the strength of one another for it is important that you uphold one another, that all of you upon this path Divine uphold one another. You shall need one another and feed one another and be together, seeking the solutions and the rectification of the healing of this world.

I Too Come to Uphold You

Spirit: John the Beloved
Medium: Al Fike
Date: October 15, 2022
Location: Dallas, Oregon USA

I am John the Beloved and I too come to uphold you, beloved souls, and be with you in prayer as are many from the Celestial Kingdom who come together in this place at this time. God bless you and keep you in His Love.

Lorraine's Instrumentality is Manifesting

Spirit: Sri Yukteswar
Medium: Al Fike
Date: October 15, 2022
Location: Dallas, Oregon USA

I am Sri Yukteswar. Beloved daughter, you have answered the call and heard the guidance and affirmed for yourself when you pray for a blessing that is in harmony with God's intentions that indeed everything falls into place and all is in harmony, all shall come in harmony. You have seen how many have responded in loving kindness. You have seen how those souls that are meant to be with you have come. And many more manifestations of Divine Will will come to you, beloved daughter, and you will see for yourself how God's plan will unfold and manifest in beautiful ways.

Continue to pray fervently, to seek the Divine in all things, to walk upon the path that is lit and blessed and truly be God's daughter in Divine blessing and intention on the earth so that He may use your instrumentality in a multiplicity of ways, walking along the lighted path as many join you and much comes in the blessings of love.

We are pleased and you know that many of us surround you and are here to consecrate this hallowed ground so that your work may indeed truly begin. The flow of love will intensify and draw many into the midst of this place. May God bless you, beloved daughter, and bless you all, beloved children, in the glory and wonderment of a God who loves His children, a God that brings all that is of goodness and light and love into the world. And so this portal shall be that conduit of many blessings. We thank you for coming to sustain and build this gift. God bless you. I am Sri Yukteswar. My love is with you as is the love of many, many angels who have come to join you. God bless you in His Love, in His Love.

Yes, this place is very conducive for healing and I hope that you will utilize these conditions to your benefit and your blessings. We will be here manifesting healing, manifesting blessings for the good of all mortals who come and walk upon this place.

May God bless you, keep you in love, keep you in light, uphold you in health and wellbeing. God bless you, beloved souls.

Blessings

Spirit: White Cloud
Medium: Al Fike

Location: Dallas, Oregon USA

I too come to be your friend. Light from on high pouring upon us, upholding, uplifting, bringing the grace of God amongst us. Drink deep these waters that may infill your soul, transforming you to such a degree that in time all the mysteries of the universe may be reachable by the wisdom and faculties of your soul. Transformation that comes in love shall bring many blessings and truths. I am White Cloud and I too come as your brother.

Changes Coming

Spirit: Jesus
Medium: Al Fike
Date: October 15, 2022
Location: Dallas, Oregon USA

May God's Love infill your souls, my beloveds and beautiful brothers and sisters on the world. I come, I am Jesus, I come to pray with you and to speak to you about the times that are coming, the changes that will be manifest upon your world.

Beloveds, each of you are feeling and sensing the need to change, to be prepared for the coming days that will be challenging. Along with these challenges will come many blessings, many opportunities for spiritual awakening and blessings, and to be a channel of Love and truth in the world. For it is within these changes, a world that will be upside down in perception and in the daily lives of all who live upon this earth that you must help bring a sense of order and peace to your brothers and sisters. But first you must bring this to yourselves through your prayers and blessings from God. To be prepared, beloved souls, is most important at this time, to see your world in such a way that you are in harmony with the laws of God's creation and the laws of Love. It is not time to procrastinate and to feel distracted or downtrodden by the human condition. It is time to break free from these things and be in harmony with God's Will, to truly within your soul, your mind, your consciousness, to be within that flow, that great river of God's Love and blessings. For now is the time, beloveds, to truly be prepared.

You sense the changes, they are all about you and they will increase in measure and intensity. So you must indeed find your way through the confusion and that which is not of your normal life and be in God's care, the flow of God's Will, the truth of God's Love. In this way you will find your way through all that which will be disruptive and confusing. How else will your brothers and sisters come to know that there is a plan that God intends for His children to find harmony, peace, and love? And that those things made through the efforts of man are now to be put aside and recalibrated in such a way that there will be harmony, that the intentions of man in their material expression will be changed, will be healed, will be brought to harmony. But this will not be done through the acceptance and acquiescence of human will. It will be done through God's Will, and those who are willing to follow God's Will will find their way back to harmony, and those who do not and cannot will not find satisfaction or peace or the fulfillment of their desires through the old ways of man for these things will not be relevant to the new ways that are coming, the way of God that will manifest in the world.

I urge you, I urge you to seek God with fervency and deep desire, to seek the truth of His Love through prayer, to be sensitive and aware of God's Will and God's presence. For it is time that you are readied for that which is coming and to know the grace, fulfillment of God's Touch upon you that you may be His instruments, His channels of Love and to bring wisdom to your brothers and sisters, wisdom that is needed, truth that is needed, and to help your brothers and sisters find their way through a changing world to that world which will be new and refreshing and filled with life in harmony with God's Laws.

May God bless you upon that journey, my beautiful brothers and sisters. I am your brother, I am your friend and I come to urge you on upon the path of light and truth and Love. We are united in this, beloveds, and so we will grow close and you will know me, each of you will know me in times to come and find the light and love and comfort that I may bring to all of you, and I may point the way to God and His great blessings upon your soul. Beloveds, you are and have been blessed, and so this journey will continue. You will find your way, you will know the great blessings of God upon you provided you focus upon this and put great effort towards it. It shall come. I promise you, beloveds, it shall come to each of you. You will know the joy and the upliftment of the Father's Hand upon you. Beloveds, I am with you, I love you.

God is with you every moment and loves you beyond measure. Seek out the Source of all love, seek out the Source of all wisdom, seek out your own true selves and you will find your way, no matter the tumult and the chaos. You will find your way and you will be safe and guided and at peace. Beloveds, I am with you always, I am with you in love, I am with you in prayer, I am with you when you seek for the highest blessing and the greatest good in your lives. Be at peace, beloveds, and know that God is with you always. I love you, I love you dearly, my beloved brothers and sisters upon the earth, I love you and I am with you. God bless you. God bless you, beloveds.

Moving Through Negative Conditions into Greater Light

Spirit: Faith (in reference to World Healing Center)
Medium: Al Fike
Date: October 16, 2022
Location: Dallas, Oregon USA

I am Faith. I come to pray with you today as you seek succor of the soul, that beautiful touch of God. Beloved souls, I know at times you are challenged, that others disbelieve you and project that you are insincere. But indeed as you step out into the world, so these challenges will become more frequent and more intense. The world is resistant to change, the world disbelieves that which is not concrete and before their five senses. So when you come with your subtle sensibilities, perceptions of the soul, so you become a target for those who wish to discredit and wish to lay claim for that place or territory that they feel is theirs. They become insecure and they criticize as a result.

And this will happen over and over again in your earthly plane until such time as the conditions change and those who have and gather this ammunition of criticism and disbelief will be given the opportunity to see beyond that veil, that error to a place of understanding. Those who are your worst critics may become your best of friends for when an individual such as this comes to see the truth, they are stalwart in their beliefs and will come to support and join you in your journey of truth.

Be of good cheer, beloveds, that you have found fellowship, that you are truly bonded with one another, that you know the truth of God's Love and that you recognize the existence of that truth as a living thing within your brothers and sisters, how this forms such a powerful force of light between you, amongst you. Do not let negativity stand in the way of this, but have faith in what you have and who you are so that you may step forward in strength, that those who would cast negative aspersions towards you, you will not feel the sting, you will not recognize and acknowledge the error in such a way that you feel the pain of it. Rather you will see clearly and with compassion and you will walk on beyond these conditions into greater light. As you pass you may say a prayer for that individual, ask God to put the desire for His Love within their souls so that they may experience what you experience, they may see what you see, they may come to understand that they are made up of more than flesh and bone and senses and thoughts, that indeed they possess a soul that has the potential to be eternal. This is the message that must be given. This is the message of truth and with that message the way to eternal life is through receiving the great gift of God's Love. No other way can this be accomplished, no other way can your soul be transformed and made into that which is of the Divine rather than that which is of human origins.

Because of your life and commitments you are different and other sense this difference. Some are drawn to you and others are repelled. But indeed as you walk in the world you bring the message of truth with you wherever you go and that beautiful message is displayed by the light within your soul, what emanates from you, and often by the responses that you give to others. Be that light, truly be that light and do not let any and all conditions that are not of light affect you or draw you away from your true purpose and true journey which is in time is finding at-onement with God through receiving His blessing of Love.

I know you wonder why, my beloved and beautiful children, why more are not drawn, why sometimes you feel alone and misunderstood. And yet God continues to build the foundations through you so that others may come to see and know what this is, the power and beauty of this truth, but indeed it takes time. Indeed God's plan for the salvation of humanity is an arduous journey, each taking their place within this intricate plan, each doing so with faith and commitment and consistency, each finding their own way in their own time.

God's plan is implemented in the world; it will continue to unfold. It is inevitable that the goal will be reached although the power of free will amongst man often determines the speed at which that goal may be achieved. Thus you must be patient and have great forbearance and commitment and love. This is your test with each day; this is your challenge. With each day come many blessings and indeed much is achieved even though you are not aware. We are truly grateful for the opportunity to work through you as each day passes for it is difficult for us to truly reach the conditions of earth without God's instruments, His channels desiring to be utilized in this way. You will see this as time goes by, your perceptions and understandings of these dynamics will continue to grow and flow so that indeed you will find patience and forbearance on the journey.

May you continue to uphold the truth, continue to walk this path, continue to be open to the guidance and Will of God. In this way many more experiences await you, many more opportunities to serve come to you. Much will carry you forward in the flow of God's Will and Love. Truly be His channels of light and love. Truly be in the light and all will come in accordance to His plan in the flow and outcomes of the efforts of God, His angels, His great spirits working towards the reclamation of your world, the salvation of many souls upon it.

May God bless you, my beloved friends. I am Faith and I come to uphold you, reassure you as you continue to journey day by day hoping to be God's channels of love, instruments of light and truth. So it is and so it shall be in the glory of God, the wonderment of God's universe and the beauty of your own soul. God bless you, I love you, I walk with you as do many. God bless you, beloved souls.

Circles of Light Are Most Important

Spirit: Augustine (encouragement for Al and Jeanne Fike)
Medium: Al Fike
Date: October 16, 2022
Location: Dallas, Oregon USA

Beloved souls, I am your teacher Augustine. Circles of Light are most important to create the environment, atmosphere where other souls might come and partake of the living waters of God, that they may feel safe and nurtured, upheld. It is important to continue with your efforts with Circles of Light whether that be on the wires or in the flesh. Whatever way and means you may do so, continue with these efforts for they are important and they will grow and multiply in times to come.

May God bless you, beloved souls, and keep you in His Light and Love. Your teacher, your friend Augustine is with you in your efforts. God bless you.

Building Ideal Conditions for a Centre of Light at Happy Days Farm

Spirit: Seretta Kem
Medium: Al Fike
Date: October 16, 2022
Location: Dallas, Oregon USA

It is Seretta Kem. We continue to help enhance the conditions, portals, environment, aspects of this place which will be utilized as a Centre of Light in times to come. Indeed, there is still much work to and many things to accomplish but we continue to put forth our efforts to bring the ideal conditions forward and opportunities present to open the doorway to many blessings for this world. To have the opportunity to work in this way upon such hallowed ground is a great gift, and we acknowledge you, dear sister, for allowing the guidance to be given and to take the opportunity presented to help develop this place. The blessings will flow mightily, powerfully, and you will come to know them well.

Indeed, your friend who has many gifts will open and discover many things through a prayer life upon this and within this Sanctuary of Light. I urge you to continue in prayer each and every day, to ask for the development, fulfillment of God's plan for this place and for each of you. For though things begin in a very small scale, they will open up to something more profound and wider in scope, touching many souls. As you listen to your guidance each day and fulfill your tasks as has been requested, then indeed you build the foundation strong and you open the doorway to these many gifts and blessings from God. We are with you. We shall continue to be with you and walk together this path of service. Opportunities and directions that may surprise and astound you, but thus is the Will of God whose plan is often only fathomed for the moment but indeed moves swiftly towards the future. You will come to know this plan and see the manifestations of His Will upon this earthly place.

May God bless you, beloved souls. May you continue to listen, to hear, to walk step by step into greater light and to grow within your souls as you receive evermore of God's great Love. May God bless you and keep you in light. I am Seretta Kem and my love is with you all in these ventures which intrigue and excite and bring its great rewards. God bless you.

When You Put God First, There is Time for Everything

Spirit: Mylora
Medium: Al Fike
Date: October 16, 2022
Location: Dallas, Oregon USA

There is time, beloved daughter, time to do all that you desire to do to make this place a Sanctuary of Light. Be sure to balance the material with the spiritual. Be at peace and when you do those things that are required in the material respect, do so with love and be at peace. Allow the flow of God's Will through you and all will be done readily and easily and with peace. There is time. God will allow for all things necessary to be provided and to be in place in time for that time where the world will need you and need this refuge.

May His Love continue to awaken your soul, all of you. Seek out that gift and allow it to flow into you. You must desire this with all of your heart and soul. Desire the gift that God has to give to your soul and be at peace for all things with God are nurturing and in harmony and balance. So you must find this with each day, each of you find your way in the Light. Be in balance with all of things of God, His creation, this world, and let the love flow readily, beautifully.

Each of you are charged with many material tasks and responsibilities. It is important that you take time for God above all else for when you are in harmony and in alignment with God so all that which is of the material will fall into place. What is required will be given and there will be no difficulty and arduous insistent tasks that draw you from God. Instead, there is joy and there is the way and means to accomplish all that is required. Be at peace, beloveds, and know that God is caring for you and caring for all of your needs in harmony with His laws.

Lorraine is Caretaker of One of God's Gifts to the World: Happy Days Farm

Spirit: Orion
Medium: Al Fike
Date: October 17, 2022
Location: Dallas, Oregon USA

It is I, your friend Orion. I'm glad that you have come to recognize me, my beloved friend, and that you know I am with you at times. If it is not me, it is others who come to assist you as you continue to prepare this place, this site that has been chosen and has within it in the very soils and subterranean conditions and those around this place, aspects and elements that are very conducive for healing, for energy transfer, and for light.

When you bring certain elements together there can be a great cohesion of energies that can be very useful. There are places around your planet that are famous for this that have waters that heal, caves that are sacred points upon the planet where we may communicate more readily and that there is more interaction between humanity and angelic forces, spirits, and even we from other planets. I know it is not easily discerned what these elements are and why and how they interact in order to bring about these conditions but be assured that there are places upon the planet that are, shall we say, blessed with lovely and Divine affiliations which bring many blessings forward.

So, my beloved friend, you have been blessed with such a place. Though it is humble and meek, it is powerful and beautiful and you will come to discover the depth and breadth of its power and beauty as you continue to be here and avail yourselves of these beautiful energies, elements, and conditions that uplift and encourage the spiritual aspects of your being. Although the soul is separate and requires prayer and connection with God, the spirit is amenable to both worlds--that of the spirit world and that of the material world. And when these two worlds come together as they do in this place, then your spirit body, spirit mind is well nourished by this. And so you will come to understand the dynamics of these two aspects of yourself and in relationship with that third which is your soul. As you experience these things, and your friend over here experiences it in his way, you will learn much and be able to teach much to those who come. You will be able to help them avail themselves of the experience of feeling and perceiving and knowing these elements that exist here. It truly is sacred ground, and we cannot emphasize enough the potential and possibility that come with this place. You will see in time, many things will manifest for you, many things have already manifest in terms of material support, upliftment. Many are drawn here, some wonder because it is inexplicable how this is so and yet they come anyway. They come because their spirits are drawn and their souls are curious. Yet their minds must come and be useful in some way in order to rationalize their presence with you. And yet, dear daughter, I would encourage you to just accept those who come without expectation, without material purpose but know that they are guided and that there is a spiritual purpose to their presence here. You will find that they will contribute in whatever way they can because of the acceptance that they feel, the comfort that they receive, the knowledge that may come to them, the perceptions that may grow within them. As you teach them, teach them to pray, to connect with your Heavenly Father, our Divine Source, so that they may come to know all the splendors of life, a life lived in every aspect, a life expressed in every way. For does not joy come when the individual is truly free to express themselves and to be themselves in all ways that they are?

My friends, this place is a great gift and given to a beautiful soul who has the capacity to understand it and perceive it and appreciate it and to expedite the potentials that are here. I know, dear daughter, that you have been engaged quite thoroughly with the material world in preparation, in ways of preparing this place to supply the material needs that you have. But when you rest and when the time comes where you can sit upon your laurels, you will begin a truly incredible journey of awakening to many things. You will come to know us as if we are your neighbors and we will visit often and you may even see manifestations and aspects of that which we will bring to assist you and assist this place in its development, unfolding of purpose. You will be astounded as to what we will do. That is only one aspect of all the efforts that are being made and will be made in preparation of this place. You will come to know the two worlds that exist here, the manifestation of the world of spirit that will take place. You have had glimpses of this when you walk in the forest, but indeed in every inch of this place there is potential and there will be wellsprings of light, of healing energies, of spirits, of we who come to assist you.

Because you inhabit this place your psychic gifts, those aspects of the spirit are being enlivened and awakened. Combining this with the aspects of the soul, these faculties, you will become a formidable force, a beautiful channel for God. This is always our intent whether it is we from other places in the universe or your spirit friends, angelic hosts, our single intention is to bring greater light, knowledge, and love to your world. And so you will be an instrument for this, utilized every moment of every day in some way and capacity to bring greater light to this world. This has always been your desire, your soul's purpose, and so you delve deeper into that purpose, find greater aspects and dimensions of it. It will be a glorious journey, a journey full of joy and love, insight, wisdom, and appreciation of all that God has created for truly this place is a magnificent creation of God. Though humble it may seem to the material eyes, from my eyes and the eyes of many it is truly magnificent. How blessed you are, dear daughter, to be the guardian and caretaker of this sacred place and that you come to see more fully, clearly, powerfully what it is that God has gifted you, what it is that is meant to be, manifest upon this earthly plane, beautiful beyond words, powerful beyond explanation, wondrous because all that God creates is wondrous.

Know the peace and joy of it all, each of you. Each of you, beloved souls, will know the wonderment and the joy that is ignited by God's Love, that Universal Love that permeates every aspect of God's Creation and may be obtained as the gift in prayer and reaching out to your Heavenly Father, seeking this gift, asking for its implementation into your soul, bringing about transformation and awakening. God bless you, my friends, I am Orion. I am happy to be here today with you all. God bless you, my love is with you always.

You are Still Being Used as Instruments at WHC

Spirit: Faith (reference to World Healing Center)
Medium: Al Fike

Location: Dallas, Oregon USA

May God's great blessings befall each of you that your souls may open like a flower to the sun, His Love pouring in with the beauty of His grace all about you, the peace that passes all understanding be with you.

I am Faith and I wish to assure you that no matter where you are in the world and no matter how you pray or make efforts to help bless that beautiful structure of which there is light, that your prayers will be heard and the blessings will be given, and those who are blind see it and feel it will not obstruct the way of these blessings. God's Will indeed will be done in this place. Whether you may in your physical body enter therein, know that on many occasions you have come to pray there in your spirit bodies and that there is a great effort made by those of you who are in alignment with God's Love and truth, making prayers, eliciting God's blessings upon this place. They cannot stop you from this. They cannot hold back the light and their fears will not obstruct the efforts of God's intentions upon this place. So it will be evermore. God owns this beautiful sanctuary. He has put His touch upon it so it is His just as any sacred place in the world belongs to God for God will insure that it is upheld in light and that blessings may flow.

The idea of a church, hallowed ground, is often a projection of mental desires and ambitions and which has been said hallowed ground can be many different places. God's blessings may flow and gifts may be given in healing and love and light, upliftment of many different kinds, variations of God's blessings.

May you continue to pray for this place. Though you have been restricted so that you may not enter this place in your physical body, remember that the physical part of you is merely one aspect of your being and there are many other aspects, layers, of your being that can be utilized by God in service and love.

Be at peace, beloved souls, be at peace. I am Faith and I love you, beloveds. I love that you persist and you continue to uphold the guidance given, you continue to pray for this beautiful place in the world. Know that I love you and I am with you, beloved souls.

Many Spirits Were Blessed Through Your Efforts

Spirit: Augustine (encouragement for Al and Jeanne Fike)
Medium: Al Fike
Date: October 18, 2022
Location: Dallas, Oregon USA

It is your teacher Augustine. I wish to thank these two beloved souls who continue to listen to the call, to be guided forward and to travel this earth plane in response to the guidance given. It is important that these prayers are given in various locations in the world for as you gather, no matter the size of the Circle of Light, you are drawing in various spirits from these locations. They are being influenced and taught as you are being influenced and taught and blessed. So these efforts have many elements to them that are not readily perceived.

When you enter into a place, a location, and you gather like-minded souls together who are seeking the Father's Love so you are opening up an opportunity for many others in spirit, many who are in dark spheres, undeveloped spheres, who are immature yet curious and are in need of light, are blessed in this way. Consider this, beloved souls, that you may be used in this way and influence many hundreds, even thousands of souls who are seeking and who are lost. They see the light and they are drawn to the light and then through this instrument and through all of your instrumentalities there are many blessings given, many things accomplished amongst these crowds of spirits who are in need. So your work is multifaceted, powerful and beautiful.

I thank you, beloved souls, for your efforts. I thank you that you are continuing to allow yourselves to be carried to different locations, to be focused upon prayer and speaking of spiritual things for all of these aspects of your experience together are important. Be true to God's Will, beloved souls, and know that your instrumentalities and your gifts, all those things that are unique to you as an individual can be utilized by God to bring forth various blessings and great light into the world.

When that time comes that you pass into our side of life, you will be surprised as to how many know you and know of you for how many truly work in this way, how many are focused and clear upon the path, the highest path of all, that of God's Love. It is a great blessing indeed for many who encounter you, and there are many who do encounter you and you are not aware and yet you are surrounded at this time and each time you pray by many spirits. There is still much to do, a great work to be accomplished upon the world to shift the tides towards that of light rather than darkness, to bring truth rather than error to the minds of mortals and spirits, to clear the way for the changes that are inevitable, some of which are imminent. So you must prepare yourselves with each day to be used as God's instruments wherever you are. Whatever your day brings, may it start with prayer and an effort to be used as God's instruments, putting forth your desire in prayer to be used in this way is important.

May you be blessed, my friends. You are truly blessed to have these opportunities, to be in alignment with this truth, so simple and profound and yet so misunderstood. Yet you have found your way. You continue to gain clarity and insight into this truth and to all that is of God. You shall continue to grow in this way as the Love continues to pour into your soul, changing you forever and bringing to you the insights and understanding that is of the soul, that part of you that shall indeed remain forever in the light and blessings of God. How wondrous is this, beloved souls, that you shall be in God's bosom for all eternity, that you shall know the peace, the joy, the wonderment, the truth, the light and the love of God. It shall grow forever. Can you fathom this, this great truth that a redeemed soul has eternal life and shall progress without end? Can you imagine in a thousand years of your earthly time what lights you will be, how beautiful will be your countenance, how deep will be your love, how expansive the wisdom that you will carry and how wondrous will be the blessings of your gifts expressed in the universe.

You only step forth upon the beginning, that tentative step into light and yet so much more awaits you, beloved souls, so much more awaits those who are persistent, filled with faith and love and light. So you are blessed, my friends, and you have been fortunate in your life to know this truth for it has enhanced and redirected your life in such a way that there is greater harmony, greater understanding and many experiences that affirm the truth. You will continue to find your way, the path will straighten as time progresses upon this world and in time you will not know yourselves as you have been but express yourselves as you are meant to be, a reflection of God's creation in all its beauty and all its wonderment and all its uniqueness and all its brilliance.

God bless you, my friends, beautiful students of the truth. I am your teacher Augustine and know that I walk with you every step, will continue to tutor you as to the steps to be taken, as to the truth to be understood, as to the efforts which are required to fulfill this vision of which I share of the eternal soul which shall expand in light forever. God bless you, my friends, my love is with you, my love and my presence is with you always. God bless you.
