Volume 8, No. 3

May 2022

FROM THE EDITORS

Welcome to the May 2022 edition of the Divine Love Newsletter. Pentecost will be celebrated on Sunday, June 5th this year, commemorating the descent of the Holy Spirit on Jesus' Apostles after his ascension. We, who follow the teachings of Jesus as communicated through James Padgett, know the true significance and purpose of the Holy Spirit: to bring God's Divine Love to the souls of His children, mortal or spirit, who pray in faith and earnestness to receive It. Spirits in the Padgett messages have described their own "Pentecostal" experience when they became conscious of the inflowing of God's Love. Albert G. Riddle writes: "I continued thus to seek and pray until, at last, this Great Love came to me in great abundance, flooding, as it were, my whole soul."¹ Socrates writes: "I continued to make these efforts until, at last, the great awakening came that I had a Love in me that was never before in my soul."² Caligula writes, "And at last, light came to me and Love came flowing into my soul. What a happy spirit I became, and I thanked God for His Mercy!"³

Notice the words used in these writings – "continued" and "at last", inferring that it took effort to achieve. We encourage you to continue your prayers to God for the inflowing of His Divine Love and for greater faith. Even during those times when you feel alone and are not making progress, pray for mercy and help, and surrender yourself to God's Love and Will. The Divine Love Community is here to support and encourage you. Reach out and embrace the love that your brothers and sisters have for you.

In this issue, we are pleased to bring you the 2021 report of DLSF activities and outreaches. The DLSF has done an incredible job in building a strong and loving community. We commend the board and active members for their undying efforts and strong commitment to channeling God's Divine Love and Light to this world. Al and Jeanne are currently on their Soul-Awakening Tour overseas. We report on a pre-tour Prayer Vigil and the highlights of the first three retreats – Monroeville, PA; Houston, TX; and Barbados. Please offer your prayers and blessings to Al and Jeanne for a fruitful Soul-Awakening Tour.

Bill Frase updates us on the Lightbringers efforts and their developing website. Bill is also the person to contact to be added to the WhatsApp groups Divine Love Conversations and LightBringers Prayer Line.

Jimbeau Walsh blesses us with a channeled poem by Hafiz. Terry Adler shares that to celebrate her 65th birthday, the founder of Love Is the Answer (LITA), Catherine Koch, created and published on YouTube thirty short videos featuring some of the children that LITA has helped during its 15 years of existence. Happy belated birthday Catherine, and may your work of love continue to be blessed!

Gregory Boster donated to the FCDT a Divine Love banner created by Megan Studer in the early 1970s. Greg describes the early days of the church when they rented a farm in Delta, Pennsylvania and were trying to live in unity as a family, like the early Christians. Greg sponsors a Sunday Awakening the Soul and Healing Body – Mind and Soul program. Email Greg for more info.

DLSF 2021 REPORT (JEANNE AND AL FIKE)

Divine Love Sanctuary Foundation is pleased to present an overview of their activities during 2021. Here is just a summary and highlights of the full report which can be read here.

When the world turned upside down two years ago with the global pandemic, the unexpected benefit of physical isolation was a greater focus on spirituality. Many came together in dedicated prayer to receive the inflowing of God's Divine Essence.

Highlights of the year included:

Publication of Our World in Transition – Messages from Jesus in the Spring of 2021. Soon after followed German and French translations. A Spanish translation has been completed and a Romanian translation is underway! An audio book is also in the making. While these translation and publication efforts were going on, Jesus continued to deliver another 20 lessons about the Truths of God's Love. Publication of Volume II is expected in 2022.

Direct Voice Development Retreat – In September-October, the “D.V. Dozen” came together for an intensive development retreat to pray for the awakening of our souls in preparation for receiving the gift of physical manifestation of Celestial Angels, guides and teachers in broad daylight.

Divine Love Groups – Nine active and semi active groups on WhatsApp grew and strengthened during 2021. All groups except the D.V. Development groups are open to new members. These groups, each with a different purpose, provide an opportunity for instant connection with other Divine Love followers around the world.

Online Circles of Light – Three new Circles were started in 2021 in addition to the existing ones.

2021 Programs and Events included Annual World Prayer for Divine Love on New Year's Day; Leadership Development Program for hosting Circles of Light; Interviews with Michael Nedbal, Eva Peck and Arto Aunap; Explorations in Prayer with Judy Dunbar; Padgett Study Group with Cliff de Dora, Raphael Legros, Jimbeau Walsh and Dorothy Clausen; First Nations Drumming and Story Telling with Elder Terry Aleck Coyote and Christine Turenne; and Panel Discussion on the Crystal Gift with Elizabeth Trask, Yvonne Riley and Al Fike.

DLSF involvement with the First United Spiritualist Church in Burnaby, B.C. continued with Al serving as President for the third year. FUSC Services were held on Zoom throughout the year with Al and Jeanne giving several presentations. Raphael Legros (Vice-President of FUSC) hosted two Divine Love Circles a month, with Rickie Avitan and Maureen Cardoso serving as Divine Love Mediums. Darlene Gaunt, Jane Gartshore, Debra Love and Raphael Legros also made presentations at Church Services. Debra Love and Jimbeau Walsh co-hosted a candle light service on Christmas Eve as well as a New Year's Eve sacred circle.

Partnerships with other Divine Love networks flourished. Specifically, Living Waters Spiritual Healing; FUSC Divine Love Healers; LightBringers; Wake Up Call for the Soul; and Divine Truth Sharing offered seamless cross referrals within the broader Divine Love community.

We wish to acknowledge the exceptional leadership of Geoff Cutler, Brooke Folk of Divine Love Radio, Maureen Cardoso of Living Waters Spiritual Healing, Bill Frase of Wake Up Call for the Soul, Jimbeau Walsh, Judy Dunbar, Terry Adler, Kevin O’Neill, Karen Lyons, Beth Mazur, Yvonne Riley, Raphael Legros, Darlene Gaunt, Ellen Hovan, Karanne Lambton, Elizabeth Mack, Mary Ann Kalonick and Allan Forest for their ongoing efforts in bringing the Truths of God’s Love to the world. We are grateful to seven regular monthly donors who help us meet our overhead costs each month.

May 2022 bring ever greater light, Truth and Harmony in the world. May the Lattice of Light that connects us all continue to grow and may God’s Greatest Gift of all fill our souls, individually and collectively.

DLSF SOUL-AWAKENING TOUR 2022

In the context of rapidly deteriorating world conditions and escalating Earth changes causing the suffering of millions, there is a great need for souls to awaken to the Truth of God’s Love. It takes courage, commitment, and faith to step out and publicly declare this message to all who are willing to listen. Since 2012, Al and Jeanne Fike have been guided to do exactly this.

In this issue, we are reporting on the 2022 pre-tour Prayer Vigil and the highlights of three retreats along the way – Monroeville, PA; Houston, TX; and Barbados.

Pre-Tour Prayer Vigil (Terry Adler)

When I was asked to host a prayer retreat, I immediately saw its purpose as praying for Divine Love so we could contribute to the highest possible outcomes for Al and Jeanne’s approaching Soul-Awakening Tour.

Fifteen of us were blessed to gather from March 11-13 in support of their efforts. Our dedication extended beyond the Fikes’ current tour, knowing that every soul awakening in Love strengthens the healing Light our Creator pours upon this world, its creatures and humanity.

The retreat, as in all in-person prayer gatherings, brought Love to each of us, our loved ones, the Divine Love community, and the spirit world. The Light of Love within us grew, uplifting us, and contributing to the Portal in my home, making it possible for many angels, bright spirits, and stellar friends to be with us. We grew in at-one-ment with God and in unity within the group, buoyed by each other’s energy, sharing hugs, feelings and spiritual experiences.

Al said on behalf of himself and Jeanne: “This is the first time that Jeanne and I have attended a prayer gathering in our honour. To feel so loved and cared for in so many ways was an extraordinary time with dear friends! With beautiful prayers for God’s Love, important discussions and connections, food and merriment, it couldn’t have been a more enriching and blessed time together. After a few years of not engaging in this way because of Covid restrictions, having in-person prayers and meals brought back an appreciation of the gift of fellowship and the power of Circles of Light.”

Al channeled a message from Care Walsh, confirming the importance of retreats and the above sentiments, which can be read here. By clicking on this link, you can view a video Lani Domaloy created as a memento of our shared experiences.

Monroeville, PA Retreat (Elizabeth Mack)

Submitted by: Jeanne Fike

On 25 March 2022, Al and Jeanne Fike began their two-month, five-country Soul Awakening Tour in Monroeville, Pennsylvania.

Jesus welcomed and blessed everyone. His message focused our intentions on liberating our souls from the human condition through prayer for Divine Love. Jesus' great love for God brought light and raised the loving conditions among those gathered. He urged us forward to awaken our souls through receiving Divine Love and to share it with our brothers and sisters by being channels for God, daily living the love, and being true to God and self.

Mathew spoke of the tremendous diversity among humans in thoughts, beliefs, deeds, and objectives. He said that only soul, not mind, will unify humans on Earth, and this unity will be accomplished through focus on a deeper purpose -- that of developing and expressing soul consciousness.

Orion spoke of opening ourselves to Truth by reaching beyond the mind into the soul. He stated that mind is limiting while the soul has the capacity to know all Truth.

Isaiah brought blessings and spoke of God's Love filling the atmosphere as we prayed together. He said that great changes were taking place within our souls, and that by awakening, we will find fulfillment and purpose. He encouraged us to have faith in both God's plan and our own journeys.

Andrew emphasized the importance of praying together and reaching out to one another in love as we awaken, because doing so strengthens the light within each soul and throughout the world.

The Monroeville retreat was a blessed opening event of the Fikes' Soul Awakening Tour. We thanked them for coming and sent them onward with our love and prayers for themselves and all whom they will meet.

Houston, TX Retreat (Cheri Bell)

Al and Jeanne's retreat in Houston, TX took place April 1-3. Do Nguyen hosted this gathering, his portal ever so powerful and vibrating in Love, resulting in me referring to his home as "expansion mansion." We were blessed with ten participants. Do, Dada Advayananda, Cheri Bell, with Al and Jeanne were present for all twelve messages. Tamera and James Lewis, Michelle Lin, Chuck Bloodgood, and William Montano were inspired to drop in and participate in part. Jeanne shared that God, Jesus and the Celestials had been planning their retreat for a decade prior to it manifesting!

Below are some of the message highlights that applied to all.

Peter: Our souls are flowering. Mind and soul will merge. God continues to awaken, nurture and guide.

Anna: Open souls to receive God's gift. Awaken in love and the world of God will open and strengthen us on our journey.

Jesus: We sit in the sacred moment of God -- His Love pouring into our souls transforming us from mortal to immortal. We are a part of God's intention to awaken the world.

Confucius: God's grace and touch are upon us. Our souls are like a diamond, each facet reflecting its color, beauty and power. May our light bring comfort, peace and light to others.

Yogananda: Chaos and storms are on the horizon. Let go of attachments and go to your soul. God is not punishing – what comes is the reflection of the will of man. We must give what we know to our brothers and sisters. The angels have come at this time to help usher in a new age. The sun will shine after the storms, and humanity will walk a different path.

Jesus: Endorsed Yogananda's message and reassured us that we will be safe and helped to be able to endure the storms and come into the light.

Professor Salyards: Flexibility is important. Have food and necessities stored. We may be required to leave our homes. Guidance and wisdom will manifest. We are linked with others through soul connections and will be able to help each other. Being attuned to God is our biggest strength.

Goldie: Our minds make life serious and heavy. Joy is a part of our soul.

Orion: Humanity has elected to walk the earth bereft of God. Orion, his people, angels and others will come to teach us all things of love, law and truth to correct the imbalance and achieve peace.

Jesus: The times that are coming will bring the needed healing. We will walk as souls awakened and be together and with our Heavenly Father into eternity.

Barbados Retreat (Karen Swanson)

Jeanne and Al Fike hosted their first-ever retreat in Barbados on April 8-10 and met with James Tudor, Michael Rudder, Tara Ramroop, Karen Swanson and Brenda Foster from their online circles, as well as Ester Tudor, David Jordan and Kathleen Hurley who have been exposed to Divine Love teachings for many years.

At the first meeting, Michael welcomed everyone, and James and Karen spoke of their personal journeys to discovering God's Love. Jeanne followed with words of wisdom on praying for God's Love, recognizing the presence of angels, and opening up our souls to Divine Love. Al spoke of the need to seek for God's Love and light to overcome the human condition. He said that the time for intellectualism and materialism was ending and the time for the soul was beginning. Seeking to know God from the soul through prayer will bring joy and upliftment. During the prayer, Mary blessed the conference room and Barbados. Jesus spoke of leading the way beyond the ignorance to transform and heal the world. He is one of many coming to help in the transition and transformation of humanity. This meeting was live streamed and recorded on YouTube.

The next event was a workshop where Al discussed his book, The World in Transition. He explained how he was appointed by Jesus to become his mouthpiece and how he received messages. He also discussed earth changes and how to prepare for upcoming challenges. The latter part of the session was devoted to prayer and healing as individuals shared their needs. Bartholomew gave a message that soul awakening and transformation was coming to Barbados. Jesus stated that we were all his disciples and that we will be protected and guided.

The final meeting was a question-and-answer session. Discussion topics included free will, preparing for earth changes by preparing within, praying for guidance from our souls to God's soul, praying with singleness of purpose, what Divine Love felt like, reincarnation, and Pentecost. John the Beloved had a personal message for James and also gave guidance for the planning committee. Augustine dispelled the myth of reincarnation and referred to it as a digression. Jesus closed the retreat with blessings that all will carry the truth within and come to know of God's Love.

The opportunity for Divine Love followers to meet in person and to meet others who were not part of the online circles was priceless. Al did personal readings for the participants, which brought revelations and insights. David had powerful experiences during the retreat and has since joined our online circles. The retreat reflected the Caribbean culture and ended with a celebration of dance to calypso and steelpan.

LET'S SPREAD THE TRUTH OF DIVINE LOVE TOGETHER! (BILL FRASE)

LightBringers is a developing global community connecting those who feel called to ask for Divine Love, live in harmony with the Love, and serve according to their unique gifts. It seeks to support all those who are stepping up to share the reality, truth, and power of God's Love in collaborative and creative ways. (For more information, see the May 2021 Divine Love Newsletter.)

We have been making progress on the LightBringers website and are ready to invite contributions from all who feel inspired to do so! Over the years, many in the Divine Love Community have created content and works to support those on the Divine Love path and those testing the Divine Love waters. The angels have encouraged us to increase our outreach so that many more people may experience God's Grace for themselves.

The gift of God's Love is still unknown to most of humanity, despite being available for over 2000 years and known as a lived reality by some of us for decades. The world and humankind are rapidly changing in response to the confluence of God's powerful blessings and the dark and turbulent conditions that humanity continues to proliferate upon the globe.

Many of us sense that it's time to expand our efforts to help the people of the Earth know who they really are, Whom they come from, where things are headed, and the way to experience at-onement with God through prayer for Divine Love.

You are invited to:

1. Explore the LightBringers website.
2. Email your feedback and input to LightBringers35@gmail.com.

3. As part of your input, please let us know about your own or other people's contributions that you feel could be included on the website, e.g., articles, stories, PDFs, books, websites, podcasts, recordings, videos, programs, webinars, classes, prayer circles, ministries, etc.
4. Please consider inviting others to join your efforts to share the truth of God's Divine Love (now or in the future). We have a WhatsApp group that people can join to update others on their efforts to share the truth of Divine Love and to support other people's initiatives. If you would like to join this WhatsApp group, please send an email to LightBringers35@gmail.com with your mobile number.

We have a small group of volunteers working on the website at this time, so it may take some time to respond to your questions and suggestions. However, we are excited to work with all who feel called to strengthen our connections, expand our outreach around the world, and grow our impact in service of God's plan for the salvation of all!

Infinite Ocean

I am here Hafiz.

*Standing on the shore
Of the Infinite Ocean
Wave after wave
Of uninvited thoughts and desires come
Enough to drown
Even the most competent swimmer*

*And yet one struggles
To traverse the great sea*

*To fathom its depths
As I float on the raft
Of Divine Grace
Unafraid to drown
In His love*

*To merge with the very substance
Of the Eternal One
On the Infinite Ocean
Of Love*

Won't you join me for a dip?

LITA CELEBRATES FOUNDER'S 65TH BIRTHDAY IN A SPECIAL WAY (TERRY ADLER)

Love Is the Answer, a charity in Uganda, is one of two DLSF-supported love-in-action projects. The 65th birthday of Catherine Koch, founder and CEO of LITA, was April 28th. To celebrate, Catherine created brief videos introducing thirty of the thousands of children LITA helped since she began working in Uganda in 2007. Each video is a gem – a glimpse into a life transformed by love. You can view all the videos at LITA's YouTube channel. If you feel moved to donate, go to the LITA website or to Paypal. For additional information, contact Catherine Koch.

A BIT OF CHURCH HISTORY (GREGORY BOSTER)

Recently I discovered in my belongings, and sent to Michael Nedbal, who hosts a weekly Sunday service from Hawaii, a church banner that many years ago was entrusted to me for safekeeping. The banner was made by Megan Studer, an artist, dancer and musician, who put together the first church music book and may have even changed some of the words to be more in harmony with the Divine Love Path. Megan also did line drawings of celestial angels with streams of light coming from their eyes.

A church was formed in Santa Cruz by a group of people including Dr. George and Catherine Stokes, Amy Bolton, and others. I joined this group in about 1972, after Dan Bowman gave me Volumes 1 and 2 of the True Gospel Revealed Anew by Jesus. And we began to pray.

We started meeting to pray for Divine Love with Dan, Michael Holmes and Debora Mead. Soon afterwards, the four of us lived together and invited others to come and pray with us. About a year later, in 1973, we joined the main group in Columbia, Maryland. That is when the group really flourished, and I believe that's when the banner was made. The church group had three or four households at the time and a rented farm in Delta, Pennsylvania, and were trying to live in unity as a family, like the early Christians. We had prayer, song and reading of the messages circles every night, and Sunday at noon, all were invited for a service and potluck lunch.

The first music book for the group in Maryland was just one page, legal size of handwritten songs in creative artistic patterns. The house would be full of people for the Sunday service, which consisted of music and a sermon by Dr. George Stokes. This was followed by a potluck lunch, fellowship and more music.

When Meg left the group, she gave me the banner for safekeeping. And now I pass it on to the church in Hawaii. The symbolism, I believe, shows a woman, representing the soul, having her heart open in prayer, which is emphasized by her hands forming the heart shape. The wings represent the Holy Spirit bringing to her the big Heart – Divine Love from the Soul of the Heavenly Father.

Editor's Note: The FCDT thanks Gregory for the donation of the beautiful banner and acknowledges his loving devotion to spreading God's Love and Truths in the world.

Thomas Carlyle Comments on What Luke Wrote About Jesus Dematerializing His Body after His Crucifixion

I AM HERE. Thomas Carlyle, Celestial spirit.

I merely want to say that I was present when Luke wrote, and heard what he said, and was much interested. This very question used to be a great stumbling block to my belief in the resurrection of Jesus, because it seemed to me that the resurrection of the material body was so improbable, under the circumstances as narrated in the Bible, that it was difficult for me to believe the story.

But now I can understand very readily because I am acquainted with the laws governing the formation and disintegration of the material, as the scientists say, enabling the physical body of Jesus to disappear into the surrounding atmosphere.

I wish that I had understood this fact when I was a mortal, for then many other things would have appeared to me as probably true. I would have been in a different state of belief as to spiritual things, and my progress here towards higher spheres would not have been delayed.

It is to be deplored that this so-called "mystery" was not explained in the Bible, for, had it been, man would not now be in darkness as to the meaning of the resurrection. And the many thousands who believe that the soul and spirit go into the grave to await the "great judgment day" would not be in such condition of delusion and have to suffer the consequences of such false belief in the stagnation of their soul progression, which will surely come to them.

I hope you will give this explanation to the world and let men know the truth that there will be no resurrection of the body of flesh, as taught by the churches, and that such body no longer contains the soul or spirit body upon its decease.

I will not write more tonight, but will come again.

Your brother in Christ, THOMAS CARLYLE.
